Encounter with a Shark.

Fatal as the white shark is to the unarmed, those who carry weapons of defence very frequently cope with and master him; even women, undaunted by their teeth, have been known to stab and destroy them in their bath. One day, a little boy about eight years old, happened to be washed from a catamaran which was managed by his father, who was thus early initiating him into the hardships of the mode of life which he intended him to pursue, and before he could be rescued from the turbulent waters, a shark drew him under and he was seen no more. The father lost not a moment, but calmly rose, and placing between his teeth a large knife which he carried sheathed in his Summer-band, plunged beneath the lashing waves. He disappeared for some time, but after a while was occasionally seen to rise, and dive under the billows, as if actually engaged with his formidable foe. After a while the white foam was visibly tinged with blood, which was viewed with a sensation of horror by those who could only surmise what was going on under the water. The man was again seen to rise and disappear, so that the work of death was evidently not yet complete. After some further time had elapsed, to the astonishment of all who had assembled on the beach—for a considerable crowd had now collected—the body of a huge shark was seen for a few moments above the white spray, which it completely crimsoned, and then disappeared. An instant later the man rose above the surf and made for the shore. He seemed nearly exhausted, but had not a single mark on his body, which bore no evidence whatever of the perilous conflict in which he had been so recently engaged. He had scarcely landed when an immense shark was cast upon the beach by the billows. It was quite dead, and was immediately dragged by the assembled natives beyond the reach of the surf. As soon as the shark was drawn to a place of security it was opened, when the head and limbs of the boy were taken from his stomach. The body was completely dismembered and the head severed from it, but none of the parts were mutilated.

Chicago Divines.

There is much superficial religion in Chicago. Men of social acquirements, good judgment, and holy zeal for religion, have given place to smart and brilliant speakers, who having little depth of nature, more easily skim along the surface, and please the crowd. The strain on the average preacher is double what it should be. The fashion of Sunday essays makes a demand upon the productive powers of the preacher which nothing but a rarely-gifted nature can stand. Here, as in other cities, the preacher just as soon as he enters the field, exposes himself to criticism on the merely literary grounds of freshness of ideas and elegance of style. The verdict is, in reality, made up by the few thoughtful and cultivated men in the congregation. On the contrary, preaching which expressly addresses itself to the practical questions of religious life, or to the explanation of Scripture, appeals to the religious sense of the congregation, and the verdict is made up, not by the cultivated and critical, but by the average church member. The present idea of a Pastor as a brilliant and popular lecturer on religious or semi-religious topics, is destined to extend far beyond its present bounds, unless speedily checked by some influence not now forseen. The true remedy for these fashionable innovations is the earnest cultivation of Scriptural preaching, based on thorough preparation, and for its sanction appealing only to the good sense and religious honesty of the Church. Then in the pulpit, as it once was in the prize-ring, the motto, "May the best man win."

The Genoese.

The Genoese are a laborious, and a robust, good-looking people. They have a strong feeling of nationality, and their dialect is almost unintelligible to natives of Southern Italy. The women of the better class wear an exceedingly simple, yet graceful, head-dress, the pezzolo, a muslin scarf pinned to the hair and falling over the arms and shoulders, allowing the beautiful faces and hair of the wearers to be seen through it. The poorer orders wear a long calico scarf, in gay colors, called the mezaro, which is manufactured in great quantities in the vicinity of the city.

Genoa has always been a thriving, active place, its industrious people drawing their livelihood from land and sea, and building up an enduring prosperity. She is called La Superba (the Proud), and deserves the name, for her narrow streets are lined with palaces, massive and florid in character, so that she ranks next to Naples and Constantinople among the beautiful cities of Southern Europe.

From its position it is very up and down, and some streets are inaccessible to wheeled vehicles, and no easy path for pedestrians; but its busy population gets on as well as though the whole place had been levelled and paved to the ruin of the owners. With thriving factories of silk, velvet, damask, jewelry, especially coral, gold and silver ware, artificial flowers, and a brisk trade in her own vessels. Genoa still has a population of nearly one hundred and fifty thousand.

Progressive.

A clergyman taught an old man in his old parish to read, and had found him an apt scholar. After the lessons had finished he had not been able to call at the cottage for some time, and when he did he only found the wife at home. "He's canny, sir," said the wife. "How does he get on with his readings?" "Nicely, sir." "Ah! I suppose he will read his Bible very comfortably now." "Bible, sir! bless you, he was out of the Bible and into the newspaper long ago."

We are now prepared to contract to build anything from an infant's carriage to a hack, or from a wheelbarrow to a lumber wagon complete. Painting, Trimming, &c. at the lowest possible rates. We have been backbitten and down trodden by our inferiors in business, but our motto is, "Labor against capital must and shall prevail." Hackmen, expressmen, and stablemen are solicited to give us a call with at least one horse crippled from hoof-bound, quarter cracks or corns, which we will cure free of charge, and we are sure of success. We claim that we have learned our business from the bottom to the top round of the ladder, and with our theoretical and practical knowledge of the business we are second to none on the coast. Do not pass this by saying it is a bore, or that we are imposters, but come and test us, and if we fail, of course we are the sufferers. Born of poor parents, even as our Savior, in a manger, reared in a stable almost, we think we are half horse, and able for anything that may come up. We started our business on a small scale, and have sucked the hind teat long enough. We have now turned out, as it were, the runty pig, to root hog or die. Remember the place.

WANTED—A fighting editor in the Call office.

THE King closes his round of hobnobbing to-day, and will proceed to-morrow on his way overland. He will have a special train; with an entire saloon on board.

AN accident to a freight train near Truckee yesterday morning, put the overland train due last night about twelve hours behind. It got in this morning about eight o'clock.

WE are afraid to pick up the little Oakland TRIBUNE, it is so sharp.—Alta.

We are still more frightened at seeing the Brevity man advocating "a pocket on the hip." Scissors!—just think of it!

W. A. EXNDALL, the poet and journalist, was before the Insanity Commissioners yesterday. There was not sufficient evidence to commit.—Chronicle.

Perhaps the court forgot to refer to the files of the Chronicle.

THERE is a paper in San Jose called the Patriot. Its editorials are written with a small pair of scissors.—News.

It must have required about two able-bodied men, each with a pair of large shears, to edit this morning's News.

UPON inquiring at headquarters, it is ascertained that the Post's attack on the U. S. Mail, ought to have been directed at the local express people. Brother Benton informs us that the papers the Post complains of not receiving, were not entrusted to the mails at all.

WHEN Dr. Merritt was cross-examined, he said there were no stains on the building because of the joints being "leaded," preventing the redwood juice from oozing out and running over like an old school Democrat's mouth when full of tobacco. Doubtless, Captain Wilcox imagines that there are other "stains" that no amount of "leading" could prevent, unless inserted by a shot-gun.

WASHINGTON, December 3.—The President has completed his message, and it will be read at a Cabinet meeting to-morrow. It is longer this year than last covering about eighty pages of foolscap.

We are afraid now there may have been something serious in the third-term sensation. We will give the man just one more show for his country. Perhaps the foolscap is the widely-ruled kind? Let us pray.

THERE is a sad state of affairs in the office of the Call. The editorial page is all right—there is no trouble in that branch of the house; but occasionally the local department takes the responsibility of expressing an opinion on some live topic—a healthy hoodlum, for instance. The father of him came in last night and caught the City Editor—Thomas Newcomb—alone in the office, and proceeded to maltreat that convalescent gentleman nearly to death, before the printers got wind of it and came to his relief. A shot-gun, my boy.

IN an issue of the Nevada Journal of Friday, June 3d, 1863, when A. A. Sargent was editor, we find the following: "We are informed by Hon. T. H. Caswell, county judge, that there was no occasion whatever for calling a grand jury, as no crimes whatever had occurred in the county since the last sitting of the grand jury—two months ago."—Nevada Transcript.

The above conundrum has been on our table for three days, and we are still in doubt whether the orderly condition of things in '53 was on account of the good effect of the last Grand Jury, or the great moral suasion of the editor aforesaid. Give it up.

THE San Francisco press is now in travail with respect to the mails between the metropolis and the chief suburb. The Post doesn't get the Oakland morning papers, and is so curious as to appear concerned about it. The Chronicle swings a stuffed club around promiscuously, as follows:

It isn't quite as far to Oakland as it is to New York, and yet it seems to take a letter pretty nearly as long to reach the former place as the latter. They do sometimes, by good luck, get across the bay in three days; but last week one which was dropped in one of the postal boxes in this city on Tuesday came to hand in Oakland on Saturday. The party to whom it was directed has a lock-box, which is visited punctually every day. We don't know whether the institution on Washington street on this side, or the one on Ninth street on the other, is responsible for these irregularities.

THE LETTER-CARRIER PROPOSITION.

In yesterday's TRIBUNE, we took decided grounds in favor of a thorough reconstruction of the institution known as the Oakland postoffice. This concern is scattered over a section of territory nearly four miles long by two wide, embracing three able-bodied Nasbys, each having an entire outfit of his own, and name of office separate and distinct. In speaking of abolishing the East and West End offices, for the purpose of insuring the carrier system for all concerned, we did not intend that they should cease to be postal stations with all the needed power for accommodating the people. We believe this change essential to the obtaining of a carrier system, but whatever change may be necessary to that end, ought to be granted, for it would be a saving to government and a much greater accommodation to the people. We hope to see Mr. Amerman look into this matter at his earliest convenience, and our representatives in Congress could not do a better work for them constituents than by using their influence in the department at Washington. The carrier system is due this city on the basis of population alone, besides it would afford a better and cheaper service than at present prevailing.

IT is safe to say that the change in our police department from the old happy family arrangement to the present economical and common sense style of conducting that branch of the city government, has resulted in a vastly improved force. Capt. Rand, acting the part of a detective, has to be up and around early and late as heretofore, but being clothed with full power to direct other officers, it is plain that the people will get better served than by the old red tape figurehead rule. The best illustration of the case, is in the increased number of arrests and punishments in the Court. There have been more offenders arrested and fined for violating the shooting ordinance, respecting the extreme suburbs, during the past two months, than for a year previous. Altogether, the department is now in a healthy condition without any needless expense or nonsense, as the business facts every day go to show.

THE Record is eminently disgusted at the big new hotel going up in San Francisco. But its disgust in this case cannot hold a candle to the loathing of the unfortunate wight that falls into the little old hotels of Sacramento—specially at fair time.

A PRINTING SWINDLE.

The San Jose Mercury draws it rather mild in the following article.

"We are inclined to think that the journals of the last Legislature, which have just been distributed, will not give entire satisfaction to the people of the State. The appendices, consisting of three volumes, are made up almost entirely of reports of State officers which were printed and distributed throughout the State prior to or in the first days of the session. These reports are again taken and covered with boards and sent out as appendices to the Assembly and Senate Journals. It is profitable to the State Printer, but expensive to the people, who have thus to pay twice for the same service. Again, we notice that the journals are incomplete, several important committee reports being omitted therefrom. Most prominent among these is the report of the Assembly Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds on the investigation into the alleged frauds in the construction of the College of Letters building of the State University. The Regents' report appears in full, but not a word of the report of the committee appointed to investigate them. We don't know exactly whose fault this is, but it looks as though some influence had been used to suppress the strictures of the committee on the actions of the Regents. The people have not got in these journals what they have paid for, by many hundreds of dollars, and it should be the duty of some one to find out the reason."

ALMOST everybody knows Tommy Newcomb, the City Editor of the Call, and to know him is to like him. The brutal attack upon him yesterday should be most severely punished. A gentleman should be protected from a bully, if the law have any force. There seems to have been no excuse whatever for the outrage committed at the Call office yesterday.—Alta.

Immigrants Arrived

Since April first, by overland trains, 27,273.

Nurse or Second Girl.

An advertiser in the "50-cent Column" desires a situation as nurse or second girl. See the advertisement.

Good Weed.

Cigars of the Mozart brand are pronounced superior to all others, by lovers of the weed. Dinsmore keeps the Mozart.

Will Meet To-Night.

The Board of Directors of A. O. H. will hold a special meeting at their hall this evening. A full attendance is requested.

Those Oil Paintings

At Mark Ezekiels' place, will be sold to-morrow evening. There will be no time to lose in taking a critical look at the display.

Try One.

Try a Laurel and Medallion Range from A. Gemmell, 820 Broadway. Mr. G. does excellent work in the plumbing and gasfitting line.

Watches by Car Load.

The Record of yesterday says: "On the train that passed through this city Wednesday were two car loads of immigrants, employes for the watch factory at San Francisco."

Finishing Touches.

The Seventh-street depot is nearly ready to go it alone, and the sidewalk will soon be cleared of that high board fence. The depot will be a much-needed convenience, and ought to have been built years ago.

Christmas Comes

On Friday, three weeks from to-day. The first Christmas in the world, came on Friday, hence the latter is called hangman's day, from the fact that the stockings are all hung on that day. We charge nothing for this discovery.

Furnished Room to Let.

Our "50-cent Column" contains the advertisement of a large furnished room to let in a private house. Terms moderate. References given and required. Enquire on Seventeenth street, second house from corner Jefferson (south side).

Lyceum Hall To-Night.

The first concert of a varied programme to be given by Prof. Morgan takes place to-night in the new hall in the Grand Central building. We have no doubt it will be one of the most pleasing entertainments ever afforded the Oakland public, and we hope to see it well attended.

Holiday Presents.

Mr. A. P. Moore invites the Oakland public to examine his fine stock of toys, fancy articles, etc., before going to San Francisco to purchase. Mr. M. has a splendid assortment of goods, which have been specially selected for the holiday trade. His store is on the northwest corner of Broadway and Twelfth street.

Our Girls.

The benefit concert at Platt's Hall last night, is thus alluded to by the Chronicle:

Miss Ivy Wandesforde had a capital house for her concert last night and was herself in unusually good voice and spirits, singing with unprecedented accuracy and expression. She made a great sensation with the air from Sonnambula, with which she opened the vocal portion of the entertainment, and was equally successful in her duets.

Musical Journal.

Sherman & Hyde's Musical Review for November is an unusually good number. It contains a sketch of the life of Geo. T. Bromley, gleanings from musical history, a large collection of interesting miscellaneous matter, the usual art notes, musical criticisms and four fine pieces of vocal and instrumental music. It is worth double the subscription price of one year. Subscriptions will be received till January 1st at $1 per year; after that at $1.50.

Masonic Entertainment.

There will be a Masonic entertainment given at Washington Hall, East Twelfth street, on Friday evening, December 18th, under the auspices of the Brooklyn Lodge No. 225, F. and A. M. Sanders' Quadrille Band will furnish music for dancing. Previous to the entertainment there will be a public installation of the officers of the Lodge, admission to which will be free. The Committee of Arrangements consists of Messrs. E. Bangle, J. J. Newsom and J. M. Holiday. The admission to the entertainment will be fifty cents.

No Thoroughfare.

Florence, the reigning star at the California Theater, has made a great hit in his character of Jules Obenreizer in the play of No Thoroughfare. We never saw what we may call cleaner acting than he affords in this odd character, and it will well repay Oakland people fond of superior theatrical work to lose no time in witnessing the piece, which is every way placed on the boards in the thorough manner characteristic of the California management. The support is all that could be desired, and the scenery quite up to the demands of the piece. Only one more opportunity after to-night.

MERRITT VS. WILCOX.

Cross-Examination of Mr. Rodgers.

THE LUMBER AND CARPET BUSINESS.

Chas. L. Taylor Examined and Cross-Examined.

The Doctor and the "Tribune."

The juryman having buried his dead, and being able again to give his undivided attention to the living, the Third District Court, this morning, resumed inquiries into the merits of the meritorious case of Dr. Merritt vs. Wilcox.

Most of the morning was taken up by the cross-examination of Mr. Rodgers. The only important points drawn out were, that one if not more of the bills was in the hand-writing of Dr. Merritt; that $4 per thousand was the advance charged for freight, cartage, handling and profit, on lumber bought for the hotel in San Francisco. Mr. Rodgers naively remarked, "We calculated to make a profit on our lumber."

Another important fact drawn out was that laths are not lumber.

Chas. L. Taylor, of Oakland, was the next witness, and testified that he furnished labor for putting down carpets, and upholstering furniture; carpets made expressly for the hotel, for the halls, stairs, etc.; that he solicited the order from Dr. Merritt; that Captain Wilcox, Mr. Garson and Dr. Merritt selected carpets, with him, at Nelson's, in San Francisco; that the orders were given by Dr. Merritt: that he took it for granted that Merritt and Wilcox were partners; that neither of them had told him so: that all orders and directions were received from Dr. Merritt; Wilcox had examined goods, and he had seen Wilcox in consultation with Dr. Merritt.

Our reporter suggests to us that our reports of this trial are too personal on Dr. Merritt, and more than his notes would warrant. We are not aware that we were ever personal, and certainly have no feeling against Dr. Merritt. But the reporter's notes, when delivered to us, being our own property, we claim the right to use them when and how we like, and intend to have all the fun out of them we can get.

[Communicated.]

A SONG OF LITTLE MERIT.

There was a little man,
And he had a little gun;
His little shots were made of lead;
He shot a little duck
Swimming on a little brook,
And knocked off his poor little head.

He took the duck home
To his little sister Joan,
And bade her a little fire to make,
The little duck to cook
Swimming in the little brook,
While he looked up a poor little drake.

Little Merritt is the man,
The law's the little gun,
A little explanation just to make;
And many a little duck
Has his sister had to cook,
While he looked up little Wilcox for a drake.

House Robbery.

On the 2d inst., the residence of A. Heyman, corner of Fourth and Franklin streets, was robbed of the following articles: Ninety dollars, gold—one twenty, the balance five-dollar pieces; a double-cased gold watch, gold dial, Johnson maker; a lady's double-cased gold watch, flowers in enamel, red and green; a gold locket, oval shape; a diamond ring, single stone; a lady's breast-pin, pearl center, black enamel, and an ear-ring to match. Suspicion rests upon a China boy—description, good looking and smart looking, about 17 years old, had been in wash-house 122½, Dupont street, San Francisco.

Police Court.

John Avery forfeited $6 for being drunk.

M. Leithew, for violating the peddlers' ordinance, paid $20.

John Potter, Peter Violich and S. Zeal, having complied with the ordinance relating to the connection of privies with sewers, were discharged. (No pun intended.)

Haywood Matters.

Since the Plaindealer moved to Haywood, and only appears twice a month, its array of purely local items is something startling. The issue of the 28th ult. is at hand, from which we glean as follows:

"Prayer meetings in the Methodist Church continue to be held three evenings each week."

Special Attractions.

The Lyceum Glee Club will appear three times this evening, and on one occasion, they will sing a new piece composed by Mr. and Mrs. Morgan—words by the lady and the music by the Professor. The Club is composed of eight picked members of the Harmonic Society.

Dr. Nestell

Advertises under "New To-day" special treatment for diseases of the head, throat, lungs, catarrh, asthma, pulmonary consumption, etc., by the inhalation of medicated vapors, at the natural temperature of the air breathed, and the use of showering syringes. See the advertisement.

Horse Strayed Away.

The little brown mare belonging to Wilbert & Schellhaas strayed from her stable last evening. Any person knowing of her whereabouts, will be suitably rewarded by informing the owners, at 413 Twelfth street, near City Market.

THE KING.

A "Tribune" Return Visit.

Yesterday, at noon precisely, a representative of the TRIBUNE paid the return complimentary visit to King Kalakaua. We had previously called on a native subject of His Majesty, a friend of ours, to accompany us, lest we should commit any indecorum. We were ushered into the serene presence by Governors Dominis Kapena and Consul Severance, who, by the way, seems to hang round and monopolize the Royal presence as if he had some vested rights to defend, and seems to be regarded something in the same light as the fifth weel of a coach, ringing himself into every invitation the King receives. We found His Majesty in his shirt sleeves enjoying a fine Havana. The Hawaiian flag had been removed and a very dirty American one substituted in consideration of our American prejudices—we mean the flag not the dirt. The supreme dignity of his sacred Majesty was duly protected, however, by the Hawaiian Coat of Arms, with a very fat spear and a very thin kahili, hung in front of it—and a big sword and "Kalakaua Rex" over his bed lest he wake up in the night and forget he was King in this free and enlightened country. After spending a pleasant half hour and refusing an invitation to wine, for we reminded His Majesty we represented the independent press of a temperate city, that we had lately erected a fountain to perpetuate our temperance victory. However, we feel bound to add that afterwards moved by the genial invitations of Governor Kapena and tempted by the sparkling contents of certain glasses, we fell from grace; but we did not fall so far as some leading temperance gentlemen present. We took no stick in ours.

A Stock-Broker Absconds.

William Blake, well known on California street as a stock-broker, absconded on Wednesday, taking with him in the neighborhood of $10,000 belonging to other parties. Blake was a member of the California Stock Board. His family lives in Oakland. A reward is offered for his apprehension. He is described as being 5 feet 8 inches in hight, full red beard, sandy hair, and speaks with a rather broad English accent. The detectives are on his track.—Chronicle.

Peddlers in Distress.

Marshal Johnson had Ah Hung and Ah Tar before His Honor this morning for violating the license law; bail $20 each. Tyler and Wilson brought in Ah Mun and Ah Charley at noon for the offense.

Stoning of Confucius.

The police have their eye on some boys for stoning Dr. Offoo, the Chinese physician. What a stupid thing life would be anyhow without ye festive hoodlum.

Dr. Dinsmore's

Cruelty to calf case is to be tried by a jury of peers.

Always Ahead.—The new furniture store next door to the City Market, sells furniture and bedding cheaper than any house this side of the bay. Being situated a little out of the business portion of Oakland, and having a lease of our store for a long term, at low rent, we mean to carry a living trade, and shall study to please. Upholstering done in great variety. Hair and spring mattresses worked over equal to new. Repairing, varnishing and polishing done on the premises, and promptly attended to.

WILBERT & SCHELLHAAS,
413 Twelfth street next City Market.

Kihlmeyer is undoubtedly the most business Landlord in Oakland, in spite of having the best location, opposite the depot. He has the finest bill of business can possibly produce. The very best of wines, liquors and cigars; Berlin, Weisbeer, Wienmost, also Bayrisch beer, five cents a glass, Shooting gallery, and a No. 1 billiard table, and a Monitor piano. The Old Chief is personally known too well to require any praise of his capabilities in running the best business house in Oakland.

New Photographic Gallery.—Messrs. Dunham & Lathrop's beautiful new Art Gallery, on the west side of Broadway, between 13th and 14th streets, is now open to the public. Every style of work known in the profession, executed in the best manner and at reasonable rates. Special attention given to children's pictures, and locket work, copying and enlarging of old pictures, etc.

The Democratic Victories throughout the Union have roused our citizens to the highest pitch of excitement, but we are glad to note that F. Barbagalata, of No. 1070 Broadway, near Twelfth, still preserves his calmness of mind and serves his customers from his fine assortment of crockery, glassware and hardware at prices as low as the lowest. Give him a call before going elsewhere.

Teutonia Hall.—If you want to drink a good five-cent glass of beer, and at the same time listen to the imposing strains of a first-class orchestrian, go to David Wemmers, Eighth street (south side), between Broadway and Washington, where the best of wines, liquors and cigars can also be had.

The cold weather is approaching rapidly, and in order to keep warm and have a sure preventive from getting cold, call on Harris Bros., 903 Broadway, and purchase one of those Beaver Overcoats; they are sold remarkably cheap, and are stylish and durable.

Two splendid new houses, six rooms, bath room, lots 30x80, upon northeast corner of Fifth and Myrtle streets; $2,400 for corner and $2,350 for the next adjoining; $500 cash, balance in monthly instalments. For sale by E. J. Kelly, 414 Seventh street.

Notice.—All parties indebted to the late firm of Gurnett Bros. are requested to call and settle immediately. Their office will be at the old stand, on Broadway, for the next thirty days.

Good building lots on the east side of Adeline street, between Twenty-first and Twenty-second streets, 50x130, for sale by E. J. Kelly, 414 Seventh street.

Piano-Tuner.—A first-class piano-tuner can always be secured by applying to the Sohmer & Co. Agency, 307 Twelfth street.

All Orders in the music line promptly attended to, at the Sohmer & Co. Agency, 307 Twelfth street, under Grand Central.

Dr. Popper cures corns, bunions, ingrowing nails, etc.—20 Montgomery street, San Francisco.

For the best bargains in real estate be sure and go to E. J. Kelly, 414 Seventh street.

OVERLAND ARRIVALS TO-NIGHT.

Following is a list of passengers to arrive on the overland train due here to-night:

Chapman, Miss Nellie Chapman, Miss Lizzie Chapman, San Francisco; Miss Annie Krottig, Germany; William Loller and wife, New York; Bishop Whittaker and wife, Virginia City; A. L. Pratt, Janesville, Wis.; A. H. Lamphere and wife, M. Thomas, Denver; Joseph Mullen, Ogden; D. Beerman, Eureka; Mrs. J. B. Cross and two children, Mrs. John Isaac, W. A. Mills, M. A. Perkins and family, Salt Lake; J. C. Mills, Providence, R. I.; J. C. Beach, Tuscalia; S. M. Callahan, wife and daughter, Illinois; Thomas Randell, John Evan, Robert Poke, Nevada; and one hundred and thirty immigrants.

MEDICAL ADVANCEMENT.

The American Surgery and Dispensary, 601 California Street, San Francisco.

The San Francisco Chronicle in speaking upon the subject of "Medical Advancement," says: Considering how greatly success and happiness depend upon good health, and how intimately all the most important interests of life are associated with intellectual and physical strength, medical science, especially as practiced by the leading physicians of the age, must necessarily be given the foremost place in the history of modern progress. Dr. S. Hastings Hall, who is a physician to the American Surgery and Dispensary, 601 California street, has had an extensive hospital and private practice, and the success which has attended his method of cure has been of the most signal character. He is able to refer to many well known and influential residents of this city, as well as throughout the Pacific Coast, whom he has permanently cured after their cases had been pronounced incurable by physicians of first-class standing. Of course there is a satisfactory reason for this, for in medical practice as in every other professional department, effects are only produced by causes which are capable of demonstration. If Dr. Hall were a physician of inferior skill and mediocre attainments, patients who consulted him would have very little chance to gratefully remember him for the great remedial benefits received by them from his treatment of their cases. Being the enlightened and progressive physician that he has proved himself to be, he undertakes, with the greatest confidence, the cure of diseases which, by the obstinacy of their nature, are apt to baffle the very best treatment, unless the practitioner possesses the advantages of such large experience and knowledge as has given distinction to Dr. Hall. His success is owing to the scientific system of treatment which is exclusively practiced by him, and which has proved efficacious in the most obstinate branches of disease. As he makes acute and chronic diseases his specialty, nervous debility, rheumatism, impurities of the blood and other maladies which contribute so much to the sufferings and miseries of existence, are, in the great majority of instances, made to yield to his scientific method of cure. While physicians of conservative ideas and of the old school practice are prone to be slow and uncertain in their treatment, and too frequently keep patients on their hands for indefinite periods, without either removing disease or improving health, Dr. Hall, confident of his superior skill and ability, breaks through the resisting form of the malady almost at the outset of his treatment and thereby opens the way to a speedy cure. This is the result of twenty-five years of experience as one of the most successful physicians practicing as specialist west of the Rocky Mountains. The cures which he has been daily effecting are claimed to be a sufficient guarantee of the superiority of the curative system produced by him, so that all seeking medical aid, if wisely counseled, will place their cases in his hands. In his opinion the melancholy fact cannot be too forcibly pointed out that thousands are annually greatly impaired in health and purse by falling into the hands of unprincipled men, who self-style themselves doctors, and he therefore desires to impress upon the minds of sufferers the importance of making careful inquiry into the claims and reputations of medical men before they employ any physician, as, by so doing, they will be likely to escape prolonged misery and heavy expenses. All Dr. Hall's patients have expressed themselves in the most flattering terms of his services in their behalf, for, in addition to attending strictly to professional requirements of disease, he gives good sound advice for the perpetuation of health. Dr. S. Hastings Hall may be applied to personally or addressed by letter at 601 California street, corner of Kearny, San Francisco. His office hours are from 9 A. M. to 12 M., 2 to 5, and 7 to 8 P. M.

THE LOVE THAT IS "GOLDEN."

No! Not with turbulence;
Not with the fret and worry of doubt,
Not with uncertainty compassed about;
With wooing and coaxing to-day,
And thwarting and crossing to-morrow;
Not with light laughter and play,
Or too much trouble and sorrow;
Or vexed tears, scorching the longing eyes;
Or pitiful glances, or penitent sighs,—
Would I have love.
No! Calm and earnest, good and true,
Mellowed by tenderness through and through;
Ever the same, yet ever new;
Quietly watchful; brooding above,
Over me, and round me—such the love—
Such the love only I care to have:
Patient and restful, holy, calm;
Life's pulse and breath—
Pouring into all wounds a balm,
Enduring till death.

The Decline of Talent.

I remember, says a writer in the Cornhill Magazine, many years ago, in the City of London, often to have seen a venerable looking, gray-bearded old man, apparently almost blind, turning about in a vacant sort of way the handle of an empty barrel-organ, which produced never a sound. Men's hearts soon get hardened in large towns by repeated impositions, and it is difficult to discern rightly between the reality and the sham. But, looking at it in its worse aspects, it was to me an exceedingly touching piece of acting. It brought many pennies and "fourpenny-bits" into the old man's palm. He was clinging to the old craft; he thought he was producing harmonious sounds out of that empty box. He seemed to be quite crazed. What his history was I never learnt. But I thought of the many sad spectacles that I had seen in the course of my life, of which this soundless organ reminded me—of the broken-down actors, singers, authors—of the old beaux living upon bygone fascinations, the old diners-out on their old jests, and still thinking themselves irresistible. I was present at the last appearance of Edmund Kean on the stage—and a very painful thing it was. It is better, therefore, I think, that, at least as far as his own reputation is concerned, a great genius should be stricken down in the fulness of his work, with many unaccomplished purposes to his account. In all our English poetry there are no sadder lines than these:

From Marlborough's eyes the tears of dotage flow,
And Swift expires a driveler and a show.

For all who are Suffering from Nervous and General Debility—The American Surgery and Dispensary, 601 California St., San Francisco,
Under the management of
DR. S. HASTINGS HALL,
WHO HAS HAD 25 YEARS EXPERIence and is one of the most successful Physicians practicing as Specialist west of the Rocky Mountains. His DIPLOMA can be seen at the office. Patients placing themselves under his care and treatment may always hope of finding immediate relief and a permanent cure of the disease they are suffering from. His large experience and knowledge, and scientific system of treatment, which is exclusively practiced by him, has never failed to restore the patient to perfect health, strength and vigor, as he makes Acute and Chronic Affections his specialty. Nervous debility, consumption, disease of the heart, bronchitis, indigestion, constipation, diseases of the liver and kidneys, rheumatism, affection of the bladder, irritability and weakness of the reproductive organs. Patients suffering from disease should never fail to consult Dr. H. before they employ a physician, as consultations are free to all.
TO LADIES suffering from affections peculiar to their sex, such as prolapsus uteri, disease of the ovaries, ulceration, etc., I offer to such invaluable aid and a speedy and permanent cure. Cures guaranteed in all cases. Apply personally or by letter to Dr. S. HASTINGS HALL, 601 California street, corner Kearny street. Patients in the country, who cannot conveniently visit me, can be treated at home by letter.

DR. BRENAN.
Dr. Paul M. Brenan, His Wonderful Success in the Treatment of Chronic or Long-Standing Diseases is Surprising.
THE BROAD EXPERIENCE WHICH he has had by coming in contact with hundreds of thousands of people yearly through the medium of his lectures on "The Laws of Life and Health;" this, together with his knowledge of character and the condition of individuals, mentally and physically, which enables him at once to understand the true condition of his patients the moment he comes in contact with them,
HIS PRIVATE LECTURES TO LADIES make him thoroughly familiar with all the diseases and weaknesses to which women, with her delicate and fine organization, is subject to. He has cured every case of female disease where other physicians of more than ordinary ability have failed.
PRIVATE LECTURES TO GENTLEMEN.—The Doctor's private lectures to gentlemen on "Manhood—Its Loss and Restoration," and on "The Physiology of Man and the Various Diseases of the Genito Urinary Organs," has made him master of this important subject of the profession. Thousands of broken-down constitutions can be raised to the full standard among men, mentally and physically, by calling upon DR. BRENAN. Consultation at the office free. Correspondence solicited. List of printed questions and private circular sent to any part of the United States on application, which aids the patients to describe their case.
☞ EVERYTHING WITH THE DOCTOR STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL and honorable. Office, 127 MONTGOMERY STREET. Separate rooms for ladies and gentlemen. Hours from 9 to 12 M., 2 to 5 and from 6 to 7½ P. M.

TO THE SICK!
ESPECIALLY TO THOSE WHO HAVE LONG tried the deadly efficacy of drugs in vain; and, also, to those who have abandoned the vain hope of establishing healthful conditions of the organism by steaming and cooking the body to such a degree as to force the skin to over action, thereby weakening the system, and depriving other organs of their proper share of the work of removing gross humors from the body; finally, to all who are tired of continued depletion, whether by poisonous drugs or excessive soaking. There is in Magnetism, Electricity, reasonable Water Treatment (as employed by me), together with proper attention to mode of living, a power to save and to restore in very many cases, after all other known means have failed, and I ask especially those who are suffering from those chronic conditions which are tending toward organic Heart Disease, Paralysis, Insanity, Nervous Derangements of any kind, Dyspepsia, Consumption and Rheumatism, or from Derangements of the Liver, Kidneys, Bladder, Stomach, or Lungs—to call on the undersigned and learn that after the last hope seems gone, there may be prompt relief, continued improvement, and ultimate restoration of health. Consultation free. Mrs. L. W. FISH, Electro-Magnetic Physician, Room 36, Congress Hall, Bush street, between Montgomery and Kearny, San Francisco. Office hours—9 A. M. to 4 P. M.

FOUND AT LAST!

AN INFALLIBLE Hair Restorative—which never fails to reproduce a growth of substantial hair to bald heads when the root of the hair, however feeble, is left. It is not only a Restorative, but it is cleansing and invigorating, making the hair healthy and glossy in all instances. It will restore the grayest hair to its natural color, remove dandruff, prevent the hair from falling out, by using it as a wash. Prepared and sold by A. PRIVATE MEDICAL AID!
QUICK CURES! MODERATE CHARGES!
DR. W. K. DOHERTY'S
PRIVATE
MEDICAL & SURGICAL INSTITUTE
(Founded in 1858)
No. 519 SACRAMENTO STREET,
Corner of Leidesdorff, a few doors below the What Cheer House: Private entrance on Leidesdorff street, San Francisco.
Established expressly to afford the afflicted sound and scientific Medical Aid in the treatment and cure of all Private and Chronic Diseases, cases of secresy, and all Sexual Disorders.

TO THE AFFLICTED.
DR. W. K. DOHERTY RETURNS HIS sincere thanks to his numerous patients for their patronage, and would take this opportunity to remind them that he continues to consult at his Institute for the cure of chronic diseases of the Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Digestive and Genito-Urinary Organs, and all Private Diseases and he hopes that his long experience and successful practice will continue to insure him a share of public patronage. By his practice of many years in Europe and the United States, he is enabled to apply the most efficient and successful remedies against diseases of all kinds. He cures without mercury, charges moderate, treats his patients in a correct and honorable way, and has references of unquestionable veracity from men of known respectability and high standing in society. All parties consulting him, by letter or otherwise, will receive the best and gentlest treatment and implicit secresy.
DR. DOHERTY would respectfully call attention to the following certificates from two of his patients, who, having fully recovered their health, desire to make known their remedial agent. It will be seen that their statements are fully authenticated by a Notary Public. The welfare of society imperiously demands their publicity, and they are given more to warn the unwary than to sound the praises of a physician, of whom hundreds of like cases can be cited, during a practice of more than twenty years:

A Case of Gleet and Stricture.
READ THE FOLLOWING:
DR. DOHERTY—Dear Sir: I feel my health so fully restored that, in common gratitude, I believe I should make you some written acknowledgment for your valuable services—particularly so, as your fee was small for the work performed.
I arrived in this city from the East about one year ago, and was then suffering from an old case of Gleet, complicated with Stricture. Being a stranger in this city, and believing those doctors who gave such positive assurances of success were necessarily the best (some of whom have a large number of titles), I placed myself in their charge, and continued under their treatment until I had lost nearly all hope and a considerable sum of money. I wish to say now that you are the sixth doctor I have employed, and the only one that has ever done me any service. I am entirely cured, and my general health is better than it has been for years.
In conclusion, I would say to the many unfortunates who require medical advice, if you doubt as to whom you should employ, ask DR. DOHERTY for my address, and call and see me, (I keep store in this city.) My experience may save you many dollars.
I would also add that, in the early stage of my disease, I used a large amount of the preparations advertised as an infallible cure for Gonorrhea, Gleet, etc., but never derived any benefit from them.
I am, Doctor, very truly, yours, L. H.
San Francisco, June 16, 1874.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 21st day of June, A. D. 1874.
A. S. GOULD, Notary Public.

Seminal Weakness.
A Sworn to Certificate of a Most Remarkable Cure of SPERMATORRHŒA.
A desire to benefit humanity, and a feeling of gratitude to DR. W. K. DOHERTY alone induces me to make this statement. For many years I had been afflicted with that fearful disease known as Spermatorrhea, but until 1855 experienced but little trouble or inconvenience. In that year, however, I had seminal weakness to a fearful extent, which was soon followed by the most alarming symptoms, a weakness of the back and limbs, pain in the head, dimness of vision, nervousness and general debility. My mind, too, was affected to such an extent as to seriously impair my memory; my ideas were confused and spirits depressed. I was averse to society; had evil forebodings and self-distrust, and was entirely unfitted for the duties of life. From 1855 to the summer of 1863 I employed the very best medical talent I could find, and spent several hundred dollars, but in no instance obtained more than temporary relief. I had about concluded that there was no relief for me in the world, but reading DR. DOHERTY'S advertisement, I thought I would call and see him, as he charged nothing for consultation. I had an interview with the Doctor at his office on Sacramento street, and the fee for treatment was so reasonable I determined to try him, although I did not expect much benefit from his treatment. On the 5th of December last I placed myself under his care; in one week I found myself very much improved, and now, after five weeks' treatment, I feel thoroughly cured of all my troubles and in the enjoyment of the best of health, hoping that my experience may be of benefit to others similarly afflicted, I subscribe myself, JAMES JOHNSON.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 15th day of January, A. D. 1864.
A. G. RANDALL, Notary Public

To Correspondents.
Patients (male or female) residing in any part of the country, however, distant, who may desire the opinion or advice of Dr. Doherty in their respective cases, and who think proper to submit a written statement of such, in preference to holding a personal interview, are respectfully assured that their communications will be held most sacred. The doctor is a regular graduate, and may be consulted with every confidence.
If the case be fully and candidly described, personal communication will be unnecessary, as instructions for diet, regimen and the general treatment of the case itself (including the remedies), will be forwarded without delay, and in such a manner as to convey no idea of the purport of the letter or parcel so transmitted.
Should your case require immediate attention, send ten dollars in coin (or that value in currency), by mail or Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, and a package of medicines will be sent to your address with necessary instructions for use.
Consultations, at the office or by letter, FREE. Permanent cure guaranteed, or no pay. Address W. K. DOHERTY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal.

Spermatorrhea.
DR. DOHERTY has published an important pamphlet embodying his own views and experience in relation to Impotence or Virility, being a short treatise on Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness, Nervous and Physical Debility consequent on this affection, and other diseases of the sexual organs.
This little work contains information of the utmost value to all, whether married or single, and will be sent FREE by mail on receipt of six cents in postage stamps for return postage. Address,
W. K. DOHERTY, M. D.,
SAN FRANCISCO.
